Aaron Comess - Drums

bpm=98

The image displays a drum score for the song "Two Princes" by Spin Doctors, arranged by Aaron Comess. The score is written in 4/4 time with a tempo of 98 bpm. It consists of eight staves of music, each representing a different drum part. The parts are: 1. A melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, starting at measure 1. 2. A snare drum part starting at measure 3, featuring a consistent eighth-note pattern. 3. A tom-tom part starting at measure 7, also with an eighth-note pattern. 4. A ride cymbal part starting at measure 11, with an eighth-note pattern. 5. A hi-hat part starting at measure 15, with an eighth-note pattern. 6. A second ride cymbal part starting at measure 19, with an eighth-note pattern. 7. A fill part starting at measure 19, consisting of a short, rhythmic sequence. 8. A final snare drum part starting at measure 23, continuing the eighth-note pattern. A large, semi-transparent red watermark is overlaid diagonally across the entire page.

The image shows a musical score for a guitar solo on a ride cymbal. It consists of seven systems of two staves each. The first staff of each system is a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat and a 4/4 time signature. The second staff is a bass clef staff. The music is written in a rhythmic style with many eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped with asterisks to indicate repeated patterns. Measure numbers 28, 32, 36, 42, 46, 50, and 54 are marked at the beginning of their respective systems. There are several annotations: 'ride cymbal' is written above the first system, 'fill' above the second system, 'drums & vocals' above the third system, and '8 x's (fill III misura & VIII)' above the fourth system. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of the seventh system.
